18/7905	Anti-social Behaviour (10) It was discussed the importance of reporting all crime and ASB to 101 so it can be logged. Residents are reporting on social media but then not necessarily reporting to the police via 101 as well. Calling 101 then gives the Police an audited trail. It was mentioned that on quite a few occasions, calling 101 can take up to half an hour because of a queue system but is the proper way Police can accurately collect the data. On more serious cases, call 999. It was also noted that in cases of shoplifting, Police need to see CCTV to be able to help tackle problem.
